Disclosure Statement

All contributors who can affect American Society of Hand Therapists CE content (including Leadership, Program Committee, Faculty Members, Moderators, and Staff), in their respective roles, are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest that could be viewed as a real or perceived conflict of interest. This policy is in effect to maintain adherence with the conflict of interest guidelines set by American Occupational Therapy Association Approved Provider Program, the Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer, and the Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy.

Attendees will be made aware of any affiliation or relevant financial interest that may affect the development, management, presentation or evaluation of the CE activity and will be printed in the final program and projected in slide format before each presentation. Individuals who refuse to disclose relevant financial relationships will be disqualified from being a contributor, and cannot have control of, or responsibility for, the development, management, presentation or evaluation of the CE activity.

Continuing Education Units (Occupational Therapists)

ASHT is an approved provider of continuing education by the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA). The assignment of AOTA CEUs does not imply endorsement of specific course content, products or clinical procedures by the AOTA. This continuing education activity offers a maximum of 23 contact hours, or 2.3 CEUs.

Continuing Education Units (Athletic Trainers)

Athletic Trainers

ASHT is an approved provider of continuing education by the Board of Certification for the Athletic Trainer (BOC). This continuing education activity offers a maximum of 23 contact hours, or 2.3 CEUs.

Continuing Competence Units (Physical Therapists)

The New York State Education Department of Physical Therapy recognizes ASHT as an approved provider of PT and PTA continuing education.

Continuing education requirements are regulated by the state boards of physical therapy. Each state licensing board has its own policies and procedures related to continuing education of its licensees. State boards of physical therapy place the responsibility on licensees to follow rules and regulations related to the practice of physical therapy and maintenance of licensure in their states. Licensees should verify acceptance of continuing education courses with their state licensing board by reviewing the relevant state practice act and/or administrative code.

Should you use the Dallas Hand Therapy Review Course in your state physical therapy recertification process, ASHT will reimburse up to $100 of the cost of the application. Please send ASHT a copy of your state physical therapy continuing education application to receive this reimbursement. Additionally, ASHT will supply on request, a continuing education packet containing all generally accepted required documentation. Please contact ASHT at education@asht.org for more information.

This reimbursement applies only to the first person to apply within each state. Subsequent applicants will not be charged by their state for filing.

PLEASE NOTE: State accrediting agencies may change the number of contact hours awarded for an independent study course.

Obtaining CEUs / Certificate of Completion

Within seven business days following the course, attendees will receive a CE certificate via email reflecting their participation in the course.

Participants must:

- Have paid the registration fee
- Attended session in their entirety (complete daily sign-in sheet)

Attendees should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
